

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXVI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1897.

NO. 72

CRAB ORCHARD.

The time for prayer meeting has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday night.

Levi Elder, being on the sick list, his place is being filled as clerk at W. E. Perkins' store by Geo. B. Harris.

News comes from Louisville that Mrs. Campbell, formerly Miss Maud Pettus, of this place, has a little stranger girl at her home.

The young ladies of the Christian church are making preparations for an entertainment to be given on Thanksgiving night. Save up your quarters all who expect to attend and help them.

The drummers have been selling our merchants lots of goods lately and our hustling ones on Main Street are anxious to have the good farmers come in and buy.

Our newly elected and worthy citizen, Mr. J. F. Holdam, as circuit clerk, and his popular wife have rented their home here to Alex Beazley for the new year. Will K. Buchanan has rented Mrs. Martha Fish's farm near town for next year and she will move to town.

Curtis Gover and little son, Wallace, went to Lebanon Junction Saturday. Mrs. Martha Arnold is visiting Mrs. Jessie Stagg, near Stanford. Miss Mary Abrams accompanied her. Miss Myrtle Hughes, who is teaching school at the Springs Hotel, spent Sunday with her mother in Stanford. Pretty Miss Annie Brionaugh, who is attending the Stanford Female College, enjoyed Sunday with her relatives here. Miss Rebecca Stuart, who has been a good and faithful clerk for Mr. Bastin for four or five years, has quit the store to housekeep for her father.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Andrew Johnson and Matthews are conducting a meeting at Logan's Creek.

There will be singing at the Baptist church each night this week. Rev. J. B. Crouch will preach each night next week and Rev. Dew will arrive Saturday, 20th, to assist in a protracted meeting.

The Baptist Argus has made its appearance and is so far as we can judge a most excellent paper. Rev. J. N. Prestreight, late of Williamsburg, is editor M. P. Hunt associate. Subscription $2 a year, $1 to ministers.

Mrs. Dr. T. M. Lewis, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Higgins, says that a Thanksgiving box is being gotten up by Mrs. Goodloe, of Danville, to gladden the hearts of the young men who are preparing themselves for the ministry at Kimberlin Heights, Tenn., and that the Stanford people who want to help in a good cause are requested to do likewise.

Mr. G. L. Carpenter, of the Turnersville Christian Endeavor Society, has been corresponding with Rev. Sam Jones as to when he can, under the auspices of the different Christian Endeavors, hold a meeting either at Hustonville, Junction City or Stanford some time in January and something definite will be stated in this column a little later, Mr. Carpenter says.

C. E. ENTERTAINMENT.

The Turnersville Christian church, with a seating capacity of 350 or 400, was crowded Sunday night with people from Hustonville, Stanford, McKinney and other places, at the union Christian Endeavor meeting, of which the following was the program, with Mr. G. C. Johnston as chairman: Singing by congregation; prayer. Address of welcome, Mr. Arthur Carter; response by Mr. Jack Beazley. Scripture reading, Mr. G. C. Johnston; talk on lesson Mr. Barnes Wearen; vocal solo, Miss Clara Mershon; oration, "Don't Speak of Others' Faults until You Have None of Your Own," Master Robert Harding Waters; miscellaneous talk, Mr. Dexter Ballou; talk by Mr. G. L. Carpenter; song by congregation; declamation Master Bryan Bradshaw; solo, "The Handwriting on the Wall," Mr. Joe F. Waters; talk, Prof. E. L. Grubbs; select reading, Miss Lena Bruce; sentence prayer by congregation; talk on lesson topic, "Influence," Mr. John S. Hughes; vocal quartette, Mrs. J. W. Hayden, Miss Clara Mershon, Messrs. Joe F. Waters and J. L. Ray, with Miss Myrtle Hughes as organist; address Elder W. T. Brooks; song, "God be With You till We Meet Again," by the congregation. Benediction. Eld. Brooks urged that these union meetings be held oftener and said that the great good they are accomplishing in getting the young people interested in religious matters is incalculable.

J. F. W.

Upsala College will be removed to the town New Orange, N. J., and will become the largest educational institution in the world controlled by the Lutherans.

In a shooting scrape on Mace's Creek in Perry county, Ben Ingle killed Jas. Singleton. Marie Ingle, who rushed between the men, was shot and seriously wounded.

POLITICS

Thomas C. King was appointed postmaster at Carrollton.

W. J. Bryan says the election returns vindicate the Chicago platform.

The republican party of North Carolina consists of 130,000 Negroes and 30,000 whites.

Lilburn Phelps, formerly editor of the Liberty Tribune, was elected county attorney of Russell.

Mercer did it to the constitutional amendment, a plenty. There were 1,566 against and only 110 for it.

The National Democrats elected a police judge of Jackson. Who said they didn't get a thing?—Lexington Leader.

It is estimated that 55,000 people will draw pay directly or indirectly under Van Wyck as mayor of greater New York.

For the first time in years, every officer in the county, except possibly one lone constable, is a democrat.—Glasgow News.

In 1896 William J. Bryan carried his State of Nebraska by 11,000 majority. This year it goes for Bryan, substantially by 20,000.

A Missouri paper says there are now 23 candidates for governor of that State in the field, and all counties have not yet been heard from.

The official count elects John M. Letterle, dem., to the Legislature in Louisville, when it was thought that his republican opponent had won.

The result of the election in Kentucky blasts the hopes of two Senatorial aspirants, Dr. Hunter and Senator Lindsay.—Louisville Dispatch.

The Kentucky legislature which has just been elected will consist of about 80 democrats and 20 republicans, and 26 democrats in the Senate to 12 republicans.

Senator J. C. Lay, whom we used to call the "red-headed sang digger," was elected school superintendent in Casey over Miss Fogle by 142. He seems to be getting some of the hayseed out of his hair of late.

Thank God Saufley, is elected, and Jim Evans has beat Rodney Haggard in Clark county. The idea of Haggard, with whom he used to fight to win democratic victories, getting his name under the cabin—that of itself was more than enough to defeat him.—Somerset Reporter.

Commissioner Evans points with pride to the fact that 51,101 new pensioners were added and 3,971 names restored to the rolls during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1897. It likewise appears that the total number of pensioners on the rolls, on that day, was 976,014 and the total amount disbursed was $139,940,717.

Following are the majorities in Wayne: McConaughy, county judge, 253; Walker, circuit clerk, 258; Fairchild, county clerk, 227; Cress, county attorney, 260; Henningher, sheriff, 264; Lair, jailer, 268; Shearer, county supt. schools, 230; Denney, assessor, 248; Shearer, surveyor, 243; Betram, representative, 244.

J. S. Chrisman has forwarded to Maj. P. P. Johnson his resignation as chairman of the Boyle County Democratic Committee. Mr. Chrisman, especially when judged by the results of Tuesday, has made a most capable chairman, and his resignation will be heard of with regret by the party in Boyle.

Advocate.

Carton's majority for county judge in Pulaski is 391, G. W. Shaduan for county attorney, 921, A. M. Monroe, for assessor, 797, and A. M. Freeman, for representative, 1,131. All are republicans, the other candidates had no opposition. In Somerset, Dr. J. W. F. Barker was elected mayor by 16, John H. Waddle, dem., police judge by 35, R. O. Hughes, dem., over Jim Wickensham, chief of police, by 14.

Hubble,

Dr. Herring presented Frank Todd with a 12-pound girl a few days ago.

Dr. O'Neal reports T. C. Rankin's little daughter very ill of scrofulous throat trouble.

The recent rains has caused lots more ground to be broke for wheat, even though it is late.

Elder George Gowen's meeting at the Christian church here is drawing large crowds and will continue through this week and perhaps next.

Mr. Kemp is delivering the foot power churns he sold here some months back. It is estimated that at least $500 will go out of this community for churning, and it will require a great deal of butter to replace the money.

George Wood bought some shoats at 23c. Tilford Alexander sold some timothy hay to G. A. Swinebroad for 50c. Eubanks Bros. sold some cattle to a party from Illinois for 3.90. G. A. Swinebroad sold some cattle weighing about 1,000 to John Embry at 34c.

A series of fatalities accompanied a "Cotton Belt" train. After killing a man who lay asleep on the track, it ran over and killed three children, and later along on the road a passenger committed suicide.

GEORGE T. FARRIS,

Above is a good picture of the gallant democrat who will occupy the seat in the State Senate this winter, and for four years to come, which Uncle Ben King thought he had nailed down.

He is a man of decided ability and will make his mark in the body that has had many distinguished men in it from this district.

His majority is 29, in the four counties of Boyle, Casey, Garrard and Lincoln, but that is more than sufficient to make him read his title clear without fear of contest or other disturbance.

FARM AND TRADE.

J. M. Hill sold to C. M. Jones two mule colts at $37.50.

W. H. Murphy sold to Cartmill 11,055 pound cattle at 4c.

Isaac Hubbard sold to Lyon & Allen eight 905-pound cattle at 3.40.

J. B. Gentry bought of A. M. Pence about 1,300-pound cattle at 4c.

The good trotter, Senator L., changed hands for $2,500 at Portland, Ind.

At Marshall, Mo., J. K. King sold 46 Berkshires at an average of $22.13.

William Simpson bought in the West End a bunch of butcher stuff at 2 to 24c.

Thirty-one steers, yearling to four-year-olds for sale. Apply to J. C. Hays, Crab Orchard.

Charley Dawes sold to J. E. Lynn some heifers at 2c and a small bunch of steers at 34c.

Miss Stella B. Stephenson sold her farm of 264 acres near Maywood to Dr. J. T. Morris for $850.

Twenty ears of cattle, 310 head, were shipped from Martinsburg, Mo., to Chicago that sold at 4c to 5.10.

Gen. W. H. Jackson has bought Richard Croker's interest in Belle Meade stock farm for $100,000.

FOR SALE.—30 mule colts and 25 yearlings, mostly mares and all good ones. C. T. Bohon, Hustonville.

Holman & Fox bought in Rochester a car load of butcher stuff at 2 to 4c and shipped them to Cincinnati Saturday.

Preston, 2:13, holds the record for three-year-old geldings. The record was formerly held by Fred S. Moody, 2:14.

The wool clip is said to be fully 75,000,000 pounds short in Australia, which will make the price here go away up.

J. E. Carson sold to G. W. Sisson Jr. of Pottsdam, N. Y., 9 cows and 6 calves, two yearling heifers and one bull calf for $1,000.

Cartmell, of Waynesville, Ill., bought of George Woods 67 700-pound yearlings at 3.65 and of James B. Gentry 23 1,000-pound cattle at 34c.

Ventura county, Cal., is to have a mammoth beet-sugar factory. It will handle 1,000 tons of beets per day and employ over 2,000 people.

D. N. Prewitt bought 25 sheep from William Porter at 24c; 50 from John Baughman at 24c, and 27 from Sidney Dunbar at 24c.—Advocate.

Montic Fox shipped from here yesterday eight ears of export cattle brought from J. S. Owsley, Sr., A. E. Hundley, the Logans and others.

F. P. Bishop bought in the West End a car load of butcher cattle at 14c to 34c; a car load of hogs at 3c and 126 pounds of Coulter & Spears at 24c.

The noted saddle stallion, Rex Darmak 840, sire of Rex McDonald, 833, was recently sold at public sale at Auxvasse, Mo., to Robert Biggs, for $1,380. He is 13 years old.

At a sale of Shorthorn cattle at Chicago, by John Clay, Jr., and Kellogg Farm Co., 43 animals averaged $91. The highest price was $200 paid for the bull, Scotty, 126403.

W. M. Caton's majority for county judge in Pulaski is 391, G. W. Shaduan for county attorney, 921, A. M. Monroe, for assessor, 797, and A. M. Freeman, for representative, 1,131. All are republicans, the other candidates had no opposition.

In Somersett, Dr. J. W. F. Barker was elected mayor by 16, John H. Waddle, dem., police judge by 35, R. O. Hughes, dem., over Jim Wickensham, chief of police, by 14.

George Wood bought some shoats at 23c. Tilford Alexander sold some timothy hay to G. A. Swinebroad for 50c.

Eubanks Bros. sold some cattle to a party from Illinois for 3.90. G. A. Swinebroad sold some cattle weighing about 1,000 to John Embry at 34c.

A series of fatalities accompanied a "Cotton Belt" train. After killing a man who lay asleep on the track, it ran over and killed three children, and later along on the road a passenger committed suicide.

George Wood bought some shoats at 23c. Tilford Alexander sold some timothy hay to G. A. Swinebroad for 50c.

Middleburg, Casey Co.

W. P. Keeney is still in a critical condition. Mrs. Green is recovering slowly.

Democrats should withdraw their patronage from the Liberty Tribune now since it has hoisted the republican flag.

Friend Wall's house near Grove, with all its contents, was burned. He is a very poor man and his loss is very heavy.

It was reported here Thursday that B. C. King had taken his bed over his defeat. Reckon it was somewhat surprising to the Hon. Bennie B.

Lillian, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Delk, fell out of bed one day last week and broke one of her ribs, which has caused her much suffering since.

The republicans thought they would strengthen their ticket and capture the office of magistrate in this precinct by putting up their best man, E. E. Kelsey, but Mr. K. was neatly buried under the log cabin by J. A. Wall. You can't beat your Uncle Jake.

A few democrats here about are somewhat grieved because we did not elect at least part of the county ticket; but we think they have much to be proud of. The big majority of which the republicans boasted so much and which they confidently expected to increase, was cut down about three-fourths and the lives of the candidates and their friends were scared out of them, while their pockets are void of every spare nickel and they are in only by the skin of the teeth, comparatively speaking. Not a single one of the democratic ticket thought of winning and was only surprised at coming so near doing so. So there is much reason for rejoicing over the result in Casey.

The republicans were the bluest set here on the night of the election that we have seen for many a day. When the returns came in from three precincts, Liberty, Big South and Dunnville, showing decreased majorities, they would collect in dark corners and talk in whispers, and even after Dr. Lowder brought in the report from Jenkins, which is solidly republican, one rad was heard to say: "I'll be d—d if it is comfortable yet." Finally Casey's Creek was reported, which was somewhat favorable to them, and they went home rejoicing that they had pulled through at all. We are firmly of the opinion that hal any part of the democratic ticket been elected that some of the rads would have gone into hysterics and begone raving maniacs.

Possibly it is better as it is.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

In regard to the unfortunate tragedy which occurred at Junction City on the 2d inst., between Joseph S. Wright and Jason Blackerty, it is the desire to give the true facts which led up to the unfortunate killing of the two men.

Several years ago Wright was summoned by the marshal of Junction City to assist him to arrest Blackerty, who resisted, and was shot and wounded by the marshal. From that time Blackerty had sworn vengeance against Wright and when he would get drunk would at once seek to bring on a difficulty with Wright, who tried to avoid trouble and would leave the street and go home and frequently would leave town for several days at a time.

On the day of the election Wright was perfectly sober and so far as we can learn, had not taken a single drink that day, while Blackerty was drinking quite freely all day and was seeking a difficulty with Wright, who avoided him as much as possible, without leaving the street entirely. Blackerty, however, watched his opportunity and when he thought Wright was off his guard and while talking to some Negroes near the East side of Tuttle's store house, Blackerty emerged from a small house or shed close by and with some remark about the election, fired the first shot at Wright at close range, which missed his victim and lodged in the side of the house. Wright, altho' somewhat surprised by the sudden attack (his back being in the direction from which Blackerty came) drew his pistol and shot Blackerty, who fell, while Wright advanced upon him and received his death wound from Blackerty

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - Nov. 9, 1897

W. P. WALTON.

THE Lexington Herald, managed by Mr. Dasher Breckinridge, and edited principally by his father, Col. W. C. P., denounces the time-serving newspapers, as it calls them, for giving up the cause for which they nominated Hindman because they were so signal and so severely beaten last Tuesday. He, the colonel, says he is in the fight to stay and is willing to fight at any sacrifice and any risk for the cause he espoused and which he is proud that he did espouse. As the colonel has nothing to lose and all to gain he can keep up his racket, if it does him any good. Having once roosted under the log cabin and since then fought with all his might the organization which gave him support and succor for so many years, there is nothing left for the colonel except to keep himself before the public by agitating the prolongation of a struggle in which he can appear as a leader and a grand mogul. Politically annihilated, dead and not aware of it, Col. Breckinridge will continue to bite himself and do the party that made him, the little hurt he can, instead of being willing to do penance for past sins till his undoubted abilities are again recognized, as they will be, if he will cease to fight the democratic party.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL has no desire to crow over its gold bug friends, even if it ten times more reason for it than it has. They helped us win our signal victory for the full county and district tickets, and while the result shows that we could have won without them, we nevertheless appreciate their assistance and reassure them of that appreciation.

What all democrats should do now is to get together. We are united on nearly every issue and the division in our ranks is both unseemly and useless. There are common grounds upon which we can all stand and stand together, shoulder to shoulder hereafter. To this end the INTERIOR JOURNAL will bend its every energy. Let there be no crimination and recrimination and brotherly love will be restored naturally and without formality. We are all of the same family, and blood being thicker than water, we are looking forward to a glad reunion of all the members, with no bitter word for any of them.

JOB NOE, of Owensboro, a quandam democrat for revenue only, has now announced both his conversion to republican heresies and his candidacy for Congress, and expects to raise his campaign fund from a suit for damages against the Owensboro Messenger. If his chances for going to Washington are as slim as his prospects of winning his suit, which they doubtless are and more, he had just as well make his arrangements to flee to the Mountains of Hesperidam and mourn the rest of his days with the Whangdoodie.

THE Louisville Dispatch, which was a big factor in the glorious democratic victory, can afford now to be generous and let up on Mr. Watterson. He is not an issue any more and although he has grievously sinned let us forgive him and let his splendid efforts for democracy in the past overshadow his fight against the party in recent battles. At any rate, let him alone and he'll come home and like Little Bo-peep's sheep, bring all his paraphernalia with him.

THOSE who were listening when Mark Hanna was talking to the president over the result in Ohio say that they caught that this pointed and profane sentence: "It is too d—d close here, Bill, for comfort." The Legislator will be republican by a narrow margin and it is said that it will take dead loads of boddle to keep it in line for Hanna in any event. Shrewd politicians say that Bushnell's chances to succeed Hanna are better than his own.

GOV. BRADLEY'S thanksgiving message, naming Nov. 25th is short and to the point. In it "the people are requested to abstain from labor and in every way observe the day as one on which grateful thanks should be rendered unto the Most High." He could not have said more had he used a column instead of only a few lines.

JUDGE SAUFLEY will hardly appreciate the post election "puff" of the Harrodsburg Democrat, which had no word to say for him during the canvass, not even flying his name at its masthead, though he was the regular democratic nominee. It looks very much like an effort to keep it with the victors.

"THERE'LL be no more trouble in the lan'," at least not for Bob Franklin. He beats the turncoat Violet over 2,000 for Commonwealth's Attorney in the Frankfort district. The majority against Henry Martin for Senator is nearly as large.

THE Adair County News has made its debut and is a creditable sheet in every way. It will preach democratic doctrine and keep the old county in line for next year. Charles S. Harris is editor.

COMMENTS ON THE ELECTION.

BY THE STATE DEMOCRATIC PRESS.

The rain and democratic success will bring prosperity to Kentucky.—Frankfort Argus.

Oh, it was a corker, and spread consternation in the camp of the enemy.—Winchester Sun.

The Log Cabin offers poor shelter to any man who has ever been a democrat.—Georgetown Times.

The election in Kentucky is distinctly an endorsement of the Chicago platform.—Elizabethtown News.

The fight is over and the democrats are the victors. Kentucky is redeemed and "we" the democrats did it.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

Our democratic rooster that has been in retirement for some time is out to dry crowing for Kentucky, Cook, Crenshaw and Hopkinsville.—Kentuckian.

Locally the republicans swiped the earth up with us puny democrats, but what we did to them away from home was a plenty.—Cloverport Democrat.

Judge Rodney Haggard, of Clark, after 20 years, feeding at the democratic crib, goes to defeat under the log cabin. Peace to his ashes.—Carlisle Mercury.

The rain came in ample time to raise the streams so that our republican-fusion brethren would have easy traveling up Salt River.—Winchester Democrat.

Proud "Old Kaintuck" did the handsome thing on Tuesday and placed her stamp of disapproval on republican misrule.—Midway Clipper.

If we had a thousand roosters and one of them refused to crow to-day, off would go his head and the soup pot would be his destiny.—Glasgow Times.

The lesson taught by Tuesday's election is, that there is no place in Kentucky politics for the alleged "National democratic party."—Owensboro Messenger.

Wonder if Bailey has to read the Louisville Dispatch now to find out that he had an opponent for clerk of the court of appeals. We think nit.—Knob County News.

The people of Kentucky have great cause to rejoice and be thankful. Not only have they been blest with a much-needed rain, but the democratic party is again on top.—Owenton News.

Democracy has won in spite of the most vigorous opposition ever known and has entrenched herself in Kentucky in a way that will make her hold on to the State for another 30 years, at least.—Glasgow Times.

The election last Tuesday puts the National election of 1900 exactly upon the same issues as in 1896, not only in Kentucky and Ohio, but all over the union, and the result will be different in 1900.—Bowling Green Democrat.

Hindman ran third in a field of five, but all the same he is an "also ran."

The National democratic, the populist and the prohibition parties are henceforth "d—d barren idealities" in the grand old Commonwealth.—Louisville Times.

The repudiation of the republican party by the people of this State Tuesday, was sweeping and final. That party has been given one trial by the people of Kentucky, and found wanting, and it will probably never have another.—Woodford Sun.

Hereafter when a fellow is seeking office at the hands of the people of Kentucky he will fight shy of fusion tickets. Every ticket of that character which was on the ballots in last Tuesday's election was everlasting defeated.—Danville Advocate.

The platform adopted in June by the Frankfort convention, was a serious political blunder. Fortunately it was ignored by 70,000 democrats, who, having "saved the country" in 1896, devoted the year 1897 to the salvation of the democratic party.—Louisville Post.

The result of last Tuesday's election in Kentucky fills the heart with pride and the mind with bright hopes for the future. Democracy, grand and glorious, is once more at the helm, victory perching upon her standards everywhere throughout the State.—Somerset Reporter.

What better could we ask than to have the privilege in our first issue of announcing a great democratic victory. Kentucky democratic by a majority approximating 30,000; Louisville is redeemed, and Adair county wheeled into the democratic column.—Columbus News.

Mr. Shackelford claims it as a free silver victory. The Herald is glad of this; it trusts that every sound money democrat who aided in these victories will have it thrust upon him on all occasions that the triumphs he helped to win were won by the principles he opposes.—Lexington Herald.

Victory will continue in the air and in 1900 a true democrat will be placed in the White House at Washington.

One who will be true to Jeffersonian principles. Two years hence gallant old Jo Blackburn will turn down Wm. Lindsay; a democrat will take charge at Frankfort and the day of jubilee will come.—Middlesboro Herald.

"We've got 'em a-comin' and a-gwine. We've got 'em in the east and we've got 'em in the west. We've got 'em from Alpha to Omega. We've got 'em from Cape Cod to Kalamazoo.

We've got 'em from where the ice breezes blow to where the orange blossoms grow. Praise God from whom all blessings flow!"—Louisville Dispatch.

Hindman's race ends the faction for which he stood, and it can choose between democracy and republicanism. Parker's race ends the faction for which he stood, and it must likewise choose. Of course there is no law to prevent as many factions as may be formed, but the beauty of it is that democracy is stronger than all factions and the republican party combined.—Louisville Dispatch.

The democrats redeemed the State.

The issue was fairly and squarely met and the victory is ours. A more complete rout could scarcely be imagined. From clerk of the court of appeals down to the smallest constable at the smallest cross roads, the democrats captured every office in sight. County after county had gone astray in former elections fell over each other in their enthusiastic return. City after city was reclaimed. The noble old Commonwealth was saved.—Cynthiana Democrat.

We may regret the verdict against us, but we accept it. We shall make no further effort to direct the party course or counsels, or to share in any of the responsibilities of party leadership, having done our best, according to our conscience and belief, to divert our political associates from a policy and procedure, the end of which no man can now foresee, the results of which we very much fear, both as to the welfare of the country and the party.—Courier Journal.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy has shown its power. Republicanism has been emphatically rebuked. The republican party has proven itself a tame server.

The democratic party comes out of the contest harmonious, united and aggressive, in excellent temper and splendidly organized. Reason reigns and not prejudice, and conservatism has been substituted for radicalism. The future is big with promise and bright with hope. To that future which opens up so gloriously let us go forth as friends and neighbors and democrats under the old flag, holding to the old faith, loving our country and working always for her welfare, her prosperity and her glory.—Richmond Register.

A united democracy

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - Nov. 9, 1897

E. C. WALTON, BUSINESS MANAGER.

PRESCRIPTIONS are filled right and at right prices at Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. W. A. TRIBBLE has been quite sick for a week.

Mrs. T. A. RICE returned to Mid-dlesboro Saturday.

SANFORD ALLEN, of Millersburg, was here again Sunday.

MISS ALMA GANN, of Somerset, is visiting the Misses Beck.

JOHN M. HALE, of Somerset, is with his mother, Mrs. Woodie Hale.

Mrs. B. P. MARTIN is back from a visit to relatives at Mt. Vernon.

MISS HELEN TAYLOR, of Hustonville, is with the Misses Menefee.

MRS. J. G. SAMS, of Central City, was the guest of Mrs. James Lee.

MRS. J. L. YANTIS has returned from a visit to her sister at Somerset.

MRS. PRISIE DRYE is spending a few weeks with her sisters at Hustonville.

MRS. J. C. HAYS, of Crab Orchard, spent several days with her parents at Rowland.

MISS OLLIE HUNT, of Danville, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Reinhart.

MRS. BEATRICE HIGGINS, of Dayton, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Nunnelley.

JOHN BRIGHT, JR., is assisting C. S. Nield in the management of the North Jellico Coal Co. at Grays.

MR. AND MRS. A. T. TRAYLOR went up to Corbin Saturday to visit their son, Jesse Taylor, and wife.

MR. J. L. TANNER, of McKinney, has returned from Cincinnati with a big lot of goods for Tanner Bros. store.

MR. H. N. WARE, of Washington county, was here yesterday rejoicing with the democrats over their success.

MRS. R. W. HOCKER and Miss Helen May Black, of Kansas City, Mo., will arrive to-day to visit Mrs. J. S. Hocker.

MR. AND MRS. T. L. LILLARD, of Boyle, are rejoicing over the advent of a boy, which arrived yesterday morning.

MR. AND MRS. W. W. LYON, of the West End, and niece, Miss Katie Richardson, passed up to Kirksville Saturday.

MRS. MARY J. MURPHY went to Rock Castle Springs yesterday to see her daughter, Mrs. F. J. Campbell, who is ill.

MR. ED H. EDWARDS, of New York, is at home for a short time, and wants to sell his fine farm. See notice in this issue.

CHARLES FRISBIE, of Lancaster, was here Friday in company with J. Mort Rothwell, who took the train for St. Louis.

MRS. R. P. JACOBS was called home from Louisville by the illness of Mr. Jacobs. He is now very much better.

C. D. WEBB, who used to be a type slinger in this office, was re-elected police judge of Paris by 90 majority. Hurrah for Charley!

CIRCUIT CLERK-ELECT JAS. F. HOLDEM is here catching on to the duties of the office, with that best of clerks, James P. Bailey.

MISS SUE ROUT had a number of friends with her at a candy pulling at her home Friday evening and everybody had a good time.

R. B. KENDALL, secretary of the Kentucky Growers Insurance Co., of Lexington, was here last week assisting local agent, Harry C. Baughman.

ALONG with a remittance for his subscription, Mr. A. B. McKinney, late of this county, comes a request to change his address to Seneca, South Dakota.

MISS MARTHA ELKIN left for Georgetown yesterday where she will act as bridesmaid to-morrow at the marriage of Miss Julia Halley to Mr. Charles Marvin.

J. R. MOUNT, son-in-law of Mr. J. M. McRoberts, of this place, was elected to the Legislature in the Oldham district by 90 over a fusion candidate. He is a red hot democrat.

MRS. MARY BOWMAN, Misses Virginia Bowman, Little and Bettie Craig and Sue McRoberts will leave Danville to-morrow for New York City to be absent several weeks.

MR. JOHN L. BOSLEY, of the Paris Reporter, was here yesterday, condoning with the republicans over the defeat everywhere. His wife came with him and is at Col. Jack Bosley's.

MISS MYRTLE DRANE, one of the most fascinating of girls, left yesterday for her home at Clarksville, Tenn., after a pleasant visit to the Misses Owlesy, and several hearts are bleeding.

MR. WILLIAM CONN and family and son-in-law, Woodson Tudor, of Garrison, passed through Saturday night in wagons on their way to Springfield, Ill., where they will reside. It will take them three weeks to make the trip.

HON. HARVEY HELM received information yesterday that his sister, Mrs. J. Frank Walton, of Crescent Springs, had presented her husband with a fine son, who will likely be called in honor of his uncle, the new county attorney elect.

HOME NEWS.

CHOICE wedding presents at Danks'.

BEAUTIFUL line of rugs cheap. J. C. McClary.

GUNS, new stock, great variety. Craig & Hocker.

FRESH oysters at 35¢ per quart, received daily. John H. Meier.

BEAUTIFUL line of Jardinières just received at Warren & Shanks.

ELEGANT Onyx Tables and Banquet Lamps. Danks, the jeweler. See window.

NEW trimmed and untrimmed goods at Mrs. Kate Dudderar's Wednesday, 10th.

STOCK must be reduced. Special inducements to cash buyers. Come and see. Mark Hardin.

E. F. BAILEY is opening a general merchandise stock in John Murphy's old store-room at Maywood.

IT rained at intervals yesterday and more was promised last night. Probably clearing Tuesday; colder.

ROBERT SMITH's whisky warehouse near Mt. Salem was entered by thieves and relieved of about 25 gallons Sunday night.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A 4-year-old child of James Hamm, a railroader, was burned to death at Brodhead Sunday. Its clothes caught from the cook stove.

BOY.—Mr. and Mrs. I. Mack Bruce are happy over the arrival of an 8-pound boy at their house. He made his advent Friday night and he and his mamma, and especially his papa, are doing finely.

MR. J. T. SUTTON, who had the contract, has just completed the telephone line between Hustonville and Powers' Store, Casey county. He tells us that a line will likely run from Hustonville to Kidds Store.

FREE TURNPIKES.—Judge Dawson has called the fiscal court to meet next Saturday, 13, to take action on the turnpike question, and asks all the turnpike presidents and others interested to be on hand.

HAVE TO HAUL.—Straub & Carter have been hauling water for the engine at their mill for the last six weeks and as it requires about 25 barrels a day, it is pretty expensive business. They get water from the pond near the water works.

OUR business manager acknowledges with some of Straub & Carter's Ladies' Enterprise flour, presented by Mr. D. V. Kennedy, who is both a mill builder and flour maker. It is A 1 in every particular, of beautiful color and the bread it makes is fit for the gods.

NOT KNOWN.—Sheriff T. D. Newland received a telegram Saturday from Sheriff Phillips, of Denver, Col., asking if Ed Bluit was wanted in this county for murder. As nobody with whom Mr. Newland talked ever heard of such a man, he answered in the negative.

PERRIN.—Mr. S. H. Shanks is in receipt of a telegram from Camden Point, Mo., telling of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. A. L. Perrin, at the advanced age of 85. He was raised in Lincoln county and was largely instrumental in building the old Christian church on Depot street. He was a fine old gentleman as many of the older residents of Stanford remember him. A wife and five children survive him.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church entertained the societies of all the other churches Friday afternoon from 1 to 4 o'clock. A short prayer and song service was first held in their house of worship, after which refreshments were served in the basement of the building, which were abundant and greatly enjoyed by a large crowd of ladies. This movement was inaugurated by the ladies of the Christian church, followed next by the Baptists, and is having the effect of binding the churches closer together in the bonds of Christian love.

CIRCUIT COURT is not doing very much because there is not very much to do. Green Gill, for stealing $1 from Morris Fred, was given 30 days in jail. Wm. Thurman, Negro, was acquitted of sodomy because his offense was buggery. George Carter, for breach of the peace and Walter Carter for carrying concealed weapons, were acquitted. G. M. Trusty for trespass, was fined $10 each in two cases. Henry Logan, assault, was fined $9.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B. Ritchie passed a good examination and was licensed to practice law. He got a case at once and lost it, but he is not superstitious, as it was doubtless a bad one.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

Two divorces have been granted. Mrs. Susan Lancaster gets rid of Clement Lancaster, and Mrs. Susie Melvin of Joseph Melvin.

The grand jury has returned 15 indictments, six of which are against one man for selling liquor unlawfully and two against another for carrying concealed weapons.

The wounded man is still alive and Hall has not been captured.

NEW sterling silver novelties. See Danks, the Jeweler.

NEW raisins, currants, figs, citron, nuts, &c. Higgins & McKinney.

DRIED Peaches, Apricots, Prunes and Apples at Warren & Shanks.

THE official returns increase Judge Saufley's majority to 661. Where are you at Bre'r Herndon?

DESIRABLE six-room cottage on Logan avenue for rent. Just vacated by B. N. Roller. J. F. Peyton.

ONE of R. L. Davis' Richmond constituents sent 50¢ to a Yankee, who availed himself of the opportunity to make pants last. In due course of mail the answer came, "Make the coat and vest first."

BILL LATIN'S BULLET.—The Harrodsburg Democrat says that the ball that Brownfield shot into the mouth of Billy Latin, formerly of this county, dropped out of his mouth a few days ago. The surgeons had never been able to locate the bullet, which was a .38. It had been imbedded two years in his tongue, but it had never occasioned him any annoyance, and in fact, Latin did not know that the heavy obstruction in his tongue until the day it came out.

AMONG those who are jubilant over the success of democracy there are none more so than Mr. Andrew S. Wallace, who makes his home with Mr. M. F. Elkin, his nephew. He has been voting the democratic ticket 60 years and grows deeper in the faith as the years go by. "I cast my first vote for Martin Van Buren," said he to an I. J. report, "and was proud when I heard he was elected, but I didn't feel half as good as I did Tuesday night when I was informed that Lincoln had been redeemed."

1,486.—Stanford seems to be growing small by degrees and beautifully less, like five cent loaf of bread since wheat climbed up in the '90s. That is unless Mr. George D. Wearen has made some mistake in the enumeration which he has just completed. He finds that there are but 1,486 people in the town limits, against 1,514 last year, a falling off of 16 in the white population, which is 880, and of 12 in the colored, which is now given at 606. The value of property has increased about $10,000, however, notwithstanding the hard times, and is put by Mr. Wearen at $582,850.

A GOOD POINT.—Hon. F. F. Bobbitt makes a good point in the poor-house letting matter. He says that the republicans resorted to a trick to keep Mr. Chadwick in. They first let the poor-house for two years, so that they would have another chance to let it before their time was out and then they gave it to the highest and poorest bidder for four years. The institution had never been let for that length of time before and it is a clear case of ultra vires and therefore void. The matter ought to be looked into and that $600, thrown away by the fiscal court, saved to the people if possible.

1,486.—Stanford seems to be growing small by degrees and beautifully less, like five cent loaf of bread since wheat climbed up in the '90s. That is unless Mr. George D. Wearen has made some mistake in the enumeration which he has just completed. He finds that there are but 1,486 people in the town limits, against 1,514 last year, a falling off of 16 in the white population, which is 880, and of 12 in the colored, which is now given at 606. The value of property has increased about $10,000, however, notwithstanding the hard times, and is put by Mr. Wearen at $582,850.

BAD MARKSMAN.—Will Bogle shot at Joe Palmer, another Negro, yesterday, and although Joe is as large as a good sized ox, he didn't get a scratch. Cato Crenshaw tells us that they had been "sputin'" about something, when Bill went into Phillips' restaurant and came out with a huge pistol, which he held in both hands and taking aim, fired, the ball going several feet above Palmer's head. Bogle was arrested by Marshal Newland and taken before Judge Carson, who sent him to jail to let the grand jury investigate his case.

It develops that this is a case of political persecution. Bogle didn't vote with the republicans the last time and the Negroes have been after him ever since, even taking the shoes from his feet that they claim he got for not voting.

THE Stanford Commercial is no more. Failure to collect what is due him and his wife's desire to return to Ohio are given as the reason for its suspension by its late proprietor, Mr. E. W. Spidell. This third futile effort to run another paper here ought to convince men of business capacity that it can not be done. The town is too small, in the first place, and there is not a sufficient number of republicans who can read to make the business profitable. If Mr. Spidell, who is a practical printer, and did much of his work himself, having only one other man, could not make both ends meet here, no one else need try. He tells us that he came here in March, 1896, with $500 and a half interest in his office. All that is gone and more, though he says that he has $600 or $700 owing to him. Newspaper men can guess how much of this he will collect. The proprietor of this paper lost a year or two's time and $2,500 in money before he got the INTERIOR JOURNAL on a paying basis and it is no gold mine even after these 23 years.

The official vote of Lincoln county varies but little from that given in our last issue. The changes make Shadelford's plurality 122; a mistake was made in the addition of Sam Owsley's column of 50, his vote being 1,761; Faris' majority over King was reduced 4, making it 130; G. W. DeBord has 246 instead of 244 majority for jailer, and Cook's vote is reduced 50 in the Hustonville No. 1, by a clerical error of the election clerk, making Granville Baker's majority 252 instead of only 202. The vote for free pikes is 2,067, against 132, majority for 1,935. Last year it was 2,043 for and 545 against, majority for 1,498. The vote on the bond issue is 1,997 for and 113 against, majority for 1,884. For constitutional amendment 617, against 124, majority for 493. There has been a great political revolution here in a year. Last November Davison had 292 majority. This year Judge Bailey, democrat, has 259, a change of 541 votes for democracy. The total vote then was 3,476; this year it is about 3,400.

FATAL SHOOTING.—Clarence Hall, who shot Joe Davis near Dripping Springs some weeks ago, and who was out on bond for his trial this court, got into a more serious trouble Friday night when he shot Charley Adams on the Crab Orchard pike near L. H. Pryor's. Hall, armed with a bottle of whisky and a pistol, met some boys on the pike and after shooting to scare them, remarked: "I am going to kill some d—n man before midnight." A few minutes later he met Adams, who makes his home at B. Miller's, near the scene of the shooting, and bantered him for a horse trade, when Adams agreed to give him an old mare for his pistol. The latter started home with the weapon, when Hall ordered him to stop and jerking the pistol from him, fired, the ball entering Adams' abdomen and inflicting a probably fatal wound. The wounded boy crawled to Mr. Pryor's where he remained during the night. After the shooting Hall inquired at Miller's for Adams and being informed that he was not there left in a hurry. Adams served a short term in the penitentiary for stealing some hogs from W. P. Grimes, but has since been a better boy and has redeemed himself to a great extent.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B. Ritchie passed a good examination and was licensed to practice law. He got a case at once and lost it, but he is not superstitious, as it was doubtless a bad one.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B. Ritchie passed a good examination and was licensed to practice law. He got a case at once and lost it, but he is not superstitious, as it was doubtless a bad one.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B. Ritchie passed a good examination and was licensed to practice law. He got a case at once and lost it, but he is not superstitious, as it was doubtless a bad one.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B. Ritchie passed a good examination and was licensed to practice law. He got a case at once and lost it, but he is not superstitious, as it was doubtless a bad one.

George Craddock, of England, was naturalized. Now look out for the editor of the Paris Kentuckian to claim kin with him.

The case of J. W. Bright, who sought to break the will of his grandfather, Greenberry Bright, was dismissed.

E. B

READ. COMPARE. INVESTIGATE.

The merchandise we offer and the prices we ask will bear favorable comparison with any store in LANCASTER or elsewhere. We have no desire to be known as "cheap" dealers. The idea that overshadows all others is to give you

Satisfaction at Less Cost

Than any one else. We do it—there's no doubt about that. These principles are the basis on which we ask your patronage. We have a few all wool Suits left at $6.50. We are showing a great line of Suits at $7.50 and $10. We have a few Novelties left in Suits at $12 and $15. Overcoats to Suit you with prices that will please you. Buell Bootees in abundance—all sizes and all widths at $4 and $5.

Don't Fail to See Us on BOOTS and SHOES.

Best Underwear in the United States for $1 per Suit. See our Colored Shirts at 50c and $1. We are sole agents for the Celebrated John B. Stetson Hats. We have them in all shapes and styles. Give us a call and let us convince you that we can save you money.

LOGAN & ROBINSON,

Our Prices are the Lowest, our Styles the Best, our Store the Busiest.

LANCASTER, KY.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Tuesdays and Fridays
AT $2 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE
When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

LOCAL TIME CARD.

KENTUCKY CENTRAL DIVISION.

Trains leave Stanford at 7:10 a. m. and 4 p. m.
returning at 4:25 p. m. and 9:05 p. m.

For all Points.

THROUGH TICKETS SOLD.
BAGGAGE CHECKED THROUGH.
For any information enquire of

JOE S. RICE, Agent,
Stanford, Ky.

QUEEN & CRESCENT.

Trains pass Junction City as follows:
No. 1 South 11:57 a. m. No. 2 North 4:02 p. m.
No. 26 " " 3:15 " 3:18 " 8:20 "
No. 25 " " 12:24 p. m. " 3:46 " 8:30 "
No. 5 " " 12:25 a. m. " 6 " 1:39 p. m.
No. 9 " " 8:20 p. m. " 10 " 6:00 a. m.

Note—Nos. 5 and 6 do not run Sundays, 9 and 10 go no further South than Junction City, neither do they run Sundays.

FRANKFORT AND CINCINNATI RY.

VIA GEORGETOWN.

| M. | A. M. | P. M. | A. M. |
|----------------------|-------|--------------------------|--------|
| 55 | 2:00 | Lre. Somerset, Ar 12:55 | 3:18 " |
| 3:15 | " | Jct. City, " 11:31 | 8:20 " |
| 05 | 4:50 | Arr. Georgetown, Lv 9:35 | 8:30 " |
| 20 | 11:55 | " Frankfort, " 6:30 | 8:00 " |
| 5:10 | 8:40 | Arr. Paris | 5:30 " |
| Daily except Sunday. | | | |

C. D. BERCAW, G. P. A.

ROBERT FISH,

The crack barber, is now back at his old stand in Mrs. Egbert's store-room, ready to give you a first-class shave and haircut. All needing work should call on him. He is sure to please you. Crab Orchard, Ky. 65

FOR SALE.
305 Acres Fine Land

Mostly in Blue-Grass, well fenced, well watered and has all the necessary improvements. We will sell privately and on easy terms. GENTRY BROS.
Stanford, Ky.

Mason Hotel

MRS. U. D. SIMPSON, Prop.,
Lancaster, : Kentucky.

Newly furnished; clean beds; splendid table. Everything first-class. Porters meet trains. 89

MALE HOGS.

Registered Durocs. Splendid individuals. Both last Fall's and this Spring's farrow. Prices reasonable. No charge for crating. J. M. & H. J. McROBERTS, Stanford.

A. S. PRICE,

Surgeon
Dentist,
Stanford, Ky.

Office over McRoberts' Drug Store in the Owles Building.

DR. W. B. PENNY,

B. Dentist, : Stanford, : Ky.
Office on Lancaster street at Residence.

Blue - Grass Nurseries.

FALL, 1897.

Fruit and Ornamental Trees
Grape Vines, Small Fruits, Asparagus and everything for Orchard, Lawn and Garden.
We have no agents but sell direct to the planter, saving enormous commissions. Catalogue on application.

H. F. HILLENMEYER,
Lexington, Ky.

LANCASTER.

A game of foot ball was played here on Saturday afternoon by the Lancaster and the Richmond teams. It was very interesting and resulted in the defeat of the Richmond boys by 30 to 30.

Letcher Owlsley, David Ross, Miss Eliza Lusk, J. L. McCleary and J. W. Hamilton deserve great credit for the splendid races they made, so do those who were defeated by small majorities, as they all started in with great odds against them.

Mr. W. T. West received a telegram on Thursday announcing the illness of his daughter, Miss Minnie, at Bristol, Tenn., where she has been attending school. He went thither and reports that she has typhoid fever. Dr. H. C. Herring and G. S. Gaines sent word to their daughters, who are at the same school, to return home, which they did on Saturday.

Gov. Bradby pardoned Robert Elbridge, of Somerset, who has served three years of a five-year term for killing a man named Brinkley. The pardon was asked by two trial judges and the Commonwealth's attorney.

Gov. Bradby has named Hon. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville, and J. W. Caperton, of Richmond, delegates from the State at large to the National Fishery Congress at Tampa, Fla., Jan. 19 and John E. Storms, of Lancaster, from the 8th and Charles M. Randall, of London, from the 11th district.

At Hot Springs, J. C. Powell, a prominent citizen of Middlesboro, was accidentally shot and fatally wounded by J. W. Stromberg, of Minneapolis. The wounded man's wife was so seriously affected by the shot that she is not expected to recover. Stromberg was arrested and is almost crazed with grief over the accident.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

The Canvassing Board met on Friday and the results were as stated in my last letter, except that Judge Burnside's majority over A. D. Ford, for county judge, was reduced to 4. There were seven contested ballots which, some claim, would make a tie if the race should be contested; but others claim differently, and I am unable to say whether or not it will be contested. The constitutional amendment was defeated by four votes in the county, 149 being cast for it and 153 votes against it. The turnpike bonds carried 1,401 being cast for and 218 votes against them. This is considerably over the two-thirds of the votes cast on that proposition, as required by law, and the troublesome question is settled, if there is no question of validity raised, and even then the courts may rule that they are valid. It is said that enough good democratic farmers to have overcome the small majorities against the party remained at home. This should be a lesson to them. A close analysis of the vote here reveals the fact that considerable scratching was done, and it is claimed that personal matters and diverse views on the money question entered into one race. It is hoped that the victory will bring all factions closer together and that better feeling will prevail hereafter. The Hind—man got only 76 votes in this county and his vote in the State shows that that faction can never defeat the democratic party.

As the republicans claim the credit of advancing the price of wheat, there is just as much reason for the democrats claiming credit for the refreshing rain, which we have just had, and for the better condition of the yellow fever sufferers in the South.

The University of Cincinnati Eleven defeated the Centre College team 10 to 0 at Danville Saturday afternoon.

An 18-ounce baby, apparently healthy and perfectly formed, is a curiosity at Anderson, Ind.

A detachment of militia has been called out at Eutaw, Ala., to protect a Negro who had outraged a little girl.

VICINITY NEWS.

Springfield voted 99 to 58 for water works.

The Advocate is still talking about Black Diamond Boone's railroad.

Mark Wilson was appointed postmaster at Holley Hill; C. B. Standifill at Pine Knot, both in Whitley, and Helen Sharp at Yosemitic.

Miss Lavinia Bush, of Harrodsburg, died of pneumonia, at the residence of Dr. M. L. Forsythe, at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Miss Bush was 80 years old last June, having been born in 1817, says the Democrat.

Gov. Bradby pardoned Robert Elbridge, of Somerset, who has served three years of a five-year term for killing a man named Brinkley. The pardon was asked by two trial judges and the Commonwealth's attorney.

Gov. Bradby has named Hon. R. P.

Jacobs, of Danville, and J. W. Caperton, of Richmond, delegates from the State at large to the National Fishery Congress at Tampa, Fla., Jan. 19 and John E. Storms, of Lancaster, from the 8th and Charles M. Randall, of London, from the 11th district.

At Hot Springs, J. C. Powell, a prominent citizen of Middlesboro, was accidentally shot and fatally wounded by J. W. Stromberg, of Minneapolis.

The wounded man's wife was so seriously affected by the shot that she is not expected to recover. Stromberg was arrested and is almost crazed with grief over the accident.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a spoke of that once glittering band wagon he daddied is left. And on the day of election his friends proposed to sell the running gear. And now his friends say, "My God, Boss Davison, where are you at?" You have led us to the altar, oh my God you forgot to pray and the ship is sinking and by the time you declare yourself for Congress, your ship will be landed safely in the bottom of the sea from a bomb from J. B. McCreary's great big gun.

Little Dick is county judge and the entire independent ticket will be counted in. D. R. TOTTEN, Maretburg, Ky.

INTO HIS HOLE
AND PULLED IT IN AFTER HIM.

To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

DEAR SIR.—Will you be so kind as to tell the people what has become of the Gray Gelding? I see the whole machinery has gone to the devil, as I predicted four months ago. Not a